

The Anti-Corruption Corporate Policy has as guidelines:

1. To ensure the existence of formal and effective procedure aimed at preventing and fighting corruption and bribery, aligned with applicable laws and regulations.
2. To disseminate the corporate culture and awareness of preventing and fighting corruption and bribery.
3. To ensure the effective and confidential treatment to complaints of corruption or bribery, anonymous or not, made by any interested party.
4. To provide cooperative and transparent relations with the public authorities in order to ensure the prevention and fighting corruption and bribery.
5. To ensure that any kind of contribution to public and/or private entities is in compliance with the Organization ethical principles.
